

The First Conference on Jungian Child and Adolescent Analysis, Moscow
April, 25 to 27th (Thursday, Friday, Saturday)
Programme

Thursday

Pre-Conference and Dedication to the First Child Analyst

10:00-12:00 Reflection on How to be A Jungian Child and Adolescent Analyst: Training and therapeutic approach. Formation of the Russian Association for Infant Observation.

Chairs: Alessandra Cavalli (SAP, BPC, ACP), London, Great Britain
Brian Feldman (CGJSF, IRSJA, AIDOB), CA, USA

12:30-15:00 Registration

15:00 Opening and a Welcome Address

Batya Brosh Palmoni (IAAP, C&A Working Group, IJJP), Israel, Tatiana Rebeko (RSAP), Russia, Natalya Pavlikova (RSAP, President), Russia

15:30 Jan Wiener (SAP), London, GB

To Russia with Love: Building Bridges in the Field of Child and Adult Analysis

Chair: Natalya Pavlikova (RSAP), Russia

16:00-17:00 Vsevolod Agarkov (candidate-in-training, IPA, Moscow Group of Psychoanalysts), Russia; Maria Salyamova (RSAP), Russia; Anna Korotkova (candidate-in-training, RSAP), Russia; Elena Bortuleva (RSAP) Russia.

Sabina Spielrein: The Spirit of Russia

Chair: Batya Brosh Palmoni (IAAP, C&A Working Group, IJJP), Israel

17:30 – 19:00 Co-plenary:

(1) Elizabeth Urban Interviewed by Alessandra Cavalli (SAP), GB

(2) Gustav Bovensiepen (DAGP), Germany

Living in the Complex – A Complex Theory Revisited.

Chair: Brian Elliot Feldman (CGJSF, IRSJA, AIDOB), USA

19:30 Wine and music

Friday

Infant Observation and Work with children

9:00-10:30 Co-plenary:

(1) Anna Kazakova (IAAP, ECECJA, AIDOB), Russia

Infant Observation on the Esther Bick method as part of the psychoanalytical training

(2) Natalia Alexandrova (RSAP), Russia

The Archetypes of Beginning and Ending in Infant Observation

(3) Patrizia Conti (CIPA), Italy

Infant Observation as a Transformative Element for Training in Analytical Psychology

Chair: Maria Kondratchik (ACP, Association for Child Psychoanalysis, Moscow), Russia.

10:30- 11:00 Coffee and Tea Break

11:00-12:30 Co-plenary:
(1) Brian Elliot Feldman (CGJSF, IRSJA, AIDOB), CA, USA.
Analysing Autistic States of Mind in Children and Adolescents with Michael Fordham: Consultation, Theory and Practice
(2) Audrey Punnett (AGAP, CGJISF, ISST), CA, USA
Children's Dreams
(3) Wanda Grosso (AIPA), Italy.
Analytic Psychotherapy and Development Trauma. The case of a child living in a foster-care home

Chair: Elena Bortuleva (RSAP), Russia

12:30-15:00 Lunch

15:00-16:30 Break-out Sessions

Zurich Hall

- Alon Moshe (NIJA), Israel. From the soccer field to the chess board, or "The hero journey" of a child in his life, in therapy, which include using analytical, educational and psychological and other theories
- Maria Teresa Aydemir (ECECJA), Poland. "There is no such thing as a baby, there is a baby and someone" (D.W. Winnicott). A Report from the Analytical Work with Mother-Infant Pairs.
- Janet Blaser (IAAP, ISST), California, USA
A Child's Nightmare as the Encounter with the Dark Aspect of the Self
- Claire Francica (British and Irish Sandplay Society, ISST), Malta.
Infant observation as a transformative element for training in analytical psychology

Moscow Hall

- Chun-Yuan CHEN (Taipei, Taiwan, router program of IAAP since 2015)
Sandplay with a Latency Aged Boy on the Autistic Spectrum in the East Asian Culture
- Ben-Amitay Galit (Israeli Institute of Jungian Psychology), Israel
The Transformation of Raw Material into Gold: Alchemy Plays Out in Child Analytic Therapy
- Bortuleva Elena, RSAP, Russia. On Mozart Lost and Re-Discovered. From Chaos of a Fragmented Being to a Feeling-Thinking Child.

Rostov Room

- Anna Skavitina (RSAP), Russia Elizaveta Trofimova-Hellinger (Analytical Psychologist), Germany, Olga Mamedova (Analytical Psychologist), Russia, Julia Kononova (Analytical Psychologist), Russia.
The Child's Conflict and How to Overcome It. As Understood by Parents and Psychologists.

17:00- 17:30 Coffee and Tea Break

17:30-1900 Break-Out Sessions

Zurich Hall

- Birgitte M. Hansen (MPF, Member of Sandplay Therapists of America, Danish Society). Healing Trauma with Sand and Symbols - How to Overcome the Threat of Inner Terror
- Natalia Pisarenko (RSAP) and Maria Prilutskaya (candidate-in-training, RSAP), Russia . Play Minus: The Restoration or Destruction of the Symbolic in the Analytic Work with Children with Pre-Oedipal Disturbance
- Tatiana Rebeko (RSAP) Russia. Representation on the body surface in children: The habit of picking and scratching one's skin, harm or containment?

Moscow Hall

- Dr. Jörg Rasche (DGAP), Berlin, Germany. From the Forbidden City to the Temple of Jerusalem. A ten year old boy's mourning about his father.
- David Wieler (NIJS), Israel. On the David Kadinsky's "Case of Ruth"
- Lidar Shany (Jungian Psychotherapist), USA. Erich Neumann's Developmental Theory as a Guiding Map in the Therapy Room with Children and Adolescents

Rostov Hall

- Tatiana Shatunova and Viktoria Andreyeva (RSAP), Russia The Unfinished House, or The possibility of Structuring Personality in the Analytical work with Children and Sand Therapy Based on Some Complicated Cases.
- Melissa Werner (LPC, NCC, Jung Institute Zurich), Switzerland. The Archetype of the Feral Child: Analytical Work with Children whose Parents Are Addicts.
- Rosella Andreoli (IAAP, training analyst at CIPA's Northern Italy Institute), Bologna, Italy. "Whose pain is this pain?" From individual psychotherapy practice to a Conpartecipated Consultation

Evening Cultural Program Excursions

Saturday April the 27 th 2019

Therapy with Adolescents

9:00-11:00 Plenary:
(1) Carlo Paolo Ruffino (IAAP, ISST), Italy. The Myth of Osiris and Horus in the Sandtray. Its relevance in adolescence,
(2) Alessandra Cavalli (SAP, BPC, ACP), Great Britain. 'Nowhere phenomena' - Reflections on identification, de-identification and re-identification,
(3) Alessandra de Coro (AIPA), Italy. Collective and individual trauma: how can children elaborate transgenerational wounds of their 'good enough' parents? A clinical vignette of an analytical work with the parents of a 15 years old girl.
Discussion.

Chair: Batya Brosh Palmoni (NIJS), Israel

11:00-11:30 Coffee & Tea Break

11:30-13:00 The Fordham-Neumann Workshop. How can we integrate theory and learn from each other?

Chair: Alessandra Cavalli (SAP, BPC, ACP), Great Britain

13:00-15:00 Lunch

15:00-16:00 Co-plenary on Work with Parents and Why It is So Important

Moscow Hall

- Ilana Reznik (School of Psychotherapy), Israel. Co-parenting and the integration of opposites in child development
- Maria Kondratchik (Child Psychotherapist, ACP), Russia. Adolescents in Therapy
- Inna Kirilyuk (PACAP), Ukraine. On some difficulties in the Analytic Work with the Adolescent with a Negative Transference
- Elizaveta Molostova (RSAP), Russia. The Child-Parent-Analyst-Supervisor. Role of a Supervisor in the case Advancement.

Chair: Taniana Rebeko (RSAP), Russia

16:00-16:30 Coffee and Tea Break

16:30-18:00 Break-out Sessions

Zurich Hall

- Chiara Tozzi (AIPA), Italy
A BOUNDLESS ADOLESCENCE: A journey across the present-day experiences of adolescents
- Margo Leahy (The C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco), USA
Separation-Individuation issues in the Adolescent Girl
- Gianni Nagliero (Italy). Containing Frame and Unconscious Relationship in the Analysis with Adolescents: Some Theoretical and Clinical Considerations

Rostov Hall

- Marina Colasanti (AIPA), Italy.
Live body visceral impressions and pro-biotic monsters
- Giancarlo Costanza (ARPA), Italy.
ASD Children and Their Families Meet Jungian Approach in Italian CAMHS
- Agour Olga (NIJS), Israel. Archetype of the "Other" in the Israeli Spatiality: a Jungian Analytical Look at the Adjustment Experience of the FSU Immigrant Youth

Moscow Hall

- Letizia Sabrina Cartagena Calcari and Donatella Morellini (CIPA) Centro Italiano Psicologia Analitica Rome, Italy. The Neuropsychodynamic Evaluation in Developmental Ages: a Jungian Clinical Perspective
- Einat Ofri Landa (IJA, IACA (YAHAT)), Tel Aviv, Israel.
A model of Music Therapy based on Jung's approach. David's journey
- Tatiana Pervushina (RSAP), Russia and Maria Prilutskaya (Router in Trainig, RSAP), Russia. The Son's Complex: a symbolic plot in the psychological individuation of the son in Pushkin's 'Tale of King Sultan'

18:00 -19:30 Final Plenary

Catherine Crowther (SAP), GB

Brian Elliot Feldman (CGJSF, IRSJA, AIDOB), CA, USA ; Alessandra Cavalli (SAP, BPC, ACP), GB, Batya Brosh Palmoni (IAAP, C&A Working Group, IJJP), Israel; Audrey Punnett (AGAP, CGJISF, ISST), USA, Tatiana Rebeko, Maria Salyamova, Elena Bortuleva (all three from RSAP), Russia.

A way Forward: Jungian Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy in a Changing World (discussion, reflection).

End of Conference